Top New Perennials for 2017

We take a look at the top new perennials heading your way for 2017.

Agapanthus 'Neverland'

A bright new variety of the blue-flowering agapanthus is making its debut. The foliage maintains a nice, tidy clump that stays below 12 inches tall. On top of that, these plants have waves of sky-blue flowers all season long.

Plant name: Agapanthus 'Neverland' Height: 18 inches tall by 12 inches wide Zone: 6 Grow it with: Taller perennials and salvias

How does your garden grow? With city gardens, the answer is with ingenuity. "I always like city gardens more than country gardens in order to create the effect of having another 'room' when I'm outside at night," says Sally Stevens, design director. Feed your curiosity and explore over 230 private, secret and little-known gardens across 27 London boroughs over one very special weekend. Gardens range from the historic and traditional to the new and experimental, and include private gardens, roof gardens, community allotments, gardens belonging to historic buildings, institutions, cafés, schools and shops. One ticket gives access to numerous gardens across the weekend.

This year's Open Garden Squares Weekend is on 17-18 June 2018. Next year it is 9-10 June 2019.
